IV WHO

We are artists, we are craftsmen, we are developers, we are innovators, we are a team.

Since 2000, we have functioned under the corporate and artistic guidance and expertise of Neel Shukla, Senior Art Director. His direction empowers his team to regard all projects as unique, offering individual customisation and character. Neel's command on client relations and deep understanding of design and art evolution have awarded IV a reputable position in the market. Coming from an art family background, Neel is driven by an impulse for art which resonates on every project taken on. His team ensure every design intent and objective is achieved by filtering and exploring multiple concepts to conceive the ultimate artistic solution.

IV WHY

At IV, we understand the ever emerging world of art is blending alliances with design, technology, fashion and materials. As creative cupids, we envision a way to fuse all these elements in every project. Our aim is to leave a defined and creative footprint in every project we take on and offer a significant value to our clients.

IV leads a robust art consultancy hub. Our expert team work closely with some of the most established design and architectural firms in the region. We embrace each project with a philosophy of originality, precision and vision. Our consultants work in partnership with designers, specifiers and clients to produce images and environments which bring charm, distinction and a significant statement to their brand.

IV HUB

Our Hub is a continuous work in progress as it is ever-evolving. We are constantly adapting and adding works of art and design concepts from global innovators including in-house artisans. IV has the largest picture-framing factory in the Gulf and our services specialise in bespoke picture framing.

We run an automated framing facility with high-end computerised mount and frame cutting machinery, operated by skilled, licensed and insured picture framers. Our atelier comprises of highly skilled and detail-oriented craftsmen.

IV STUDIO

In addition to our fully automated framing facility, what differentiates IV from the rest is the combined experience of our dedicated artists and picture framers. Apart from the studio, a trained and committed installation team deliver projects of different magnitudes and with different requirements to absolute perfection.

- Art concept development and presentation
- In-house artists, sculptors, graphic designers and framing experts
- Automated custom and contract framing and mounting solutions
- Museum quality framing services
- Large network of local and international emerging artists
- Decorative lighting solutions with customisation capabilities
- Monumental scale sculpture concept design, fabrication and installation
- In-house structural engineering team for large-scale sculptures and installations
